

IGNATIUS DONNELLY,

President of the Senate.

Approved, March sixth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

ALEX. RAMSEY.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, MINNESOTA, }

March 6th, 1860. }

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original on file in this office.

J. H. BAKER, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER XLIV.

An Act to encourage the destruction of Blackbirds.

- SECTION 1. Bounty per hundred for blackbirds' scalps.
2. Auditor and Justices to give receipt—Commissioners to issue warrants.
  3. County Auditor to make return to State.
  4. Act to take effect on passage.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. That any person or persons delivering to the Auditor or any Justice of the Peace of his or their respective County, any number of blackbirds' scalps, not less than fifty at any one time, shall be entitled to the following bounty, viz: For all blackbirds' scalps so delivered between the first day of March, and the fifteenth day of June, at the rate of forty cents per hundred, and—

From the fifteenth day of June to the last day of February, following, the amount of twenty cents per hundred.

SEC. 2. The Auditor or any Justice of the Peace shall on delivery of such blackbirds' scalps, give a receipt therefor, stating the date of delivery, the number of scalps received and the amount due therefor, which receipts shall at the annual meeting of the County Board be presented to the same, and the said County Board shall then cause warrants on the County

Bounty for blackbirds' scalps

Auditor to give receipt—Commissioner to issue warrants

Treasurer to be issued for the amount thereof.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of County Auditors after the issuing of such warrants to make return of the amount so drawn to the Auditor of this State and to the Treasurer of his County, and the Auditor of the State shall consider the amount so allowed and drawn a charge against the State and give the County Treasurers of the respective counties credit for the same, and County Treasurers, upon their paying over the amount of State taxes to the Treasurer of the State, shall deduct the amount so allowed, and shall receive their fees therefor as if it had been actually paid over.

Auditor to make
return to State
Treasurer

SEC. 4. This Act shall take effect from and after its passage.

AMOS COGGSWELL,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
IGNATIUS DONNELLY,
President of the Senate.

Approved February twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

ALEX. RAMSEY.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, MINNESOTA, }
February 29th, 1860. }

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original on file in this office.

J. H. BAKER, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER XLV.

An Act to appropriate Money for certain purposes therein named.

SECTION 1. Appropriations for purposes specified therein.

1. Newson, Moore, Foster & Co., for printing,	$4,000 00
2. Printing and binding Journals,	3,000 00
3. Printing and binding General and Special laws,	4,000 00
4. Printing &c. for State officers,	500 00
5. Expenses of State Prison for 1860,	2,100 00
6. Locating remainder of University lands,	500 00
7. Publishing report of Commissioner of Statistics,	510 00
8. C. H. Schurmeir for wood,	522 50